Hi Bill:

Frank and I stopped by your office but you are out. The tile installation has commenced. To finish the tile and grout in time not to slow things down, they need to work through the weekend. I am aware that John may work a few hours tomorrow and you are closed on Sunday. We will be here to supervise. They do periodically need water. They have been using your slop sink and stock piling water buckets. If it is OK, we would open up to allow them to get water through the back warehouse if needed. Obviously, we will ensure all is locked as we have in the past. Please confirm that is OK.
